ROLL CALL

Staff Present: Executive Director Kristi Trevarow, DDA Events Coordinator Jenna O'Dell,

3. FYE 2024 Goals & Objectives Discussion

Chairman Stewart reviewed the Goals & Objectives process with the Board members.

A. Promotions Committee Meeting Summary

Jenna reviewed the minutes from the Promotions Committee Goals & Objectives Meeting from October 25, 2022. Discussion included changes to Junk in the Trunk and Thursday Night Markets, which was on the agenda for consideration.

B. Proposed 2023 Event Calendar

Jenna presented the draft 2023 Downtown Calendar of Events and went over each event in detail. Kristi mentioned that she is looking at introducing a local celebrity component to this year's Rochester: No Filter event.

The Board discussed Sidewalk Sales and the decreased number of outdoor sales this year. Jenna indicated that many merchants did not have enough staff for both indoor and outdoor sales. Karen Malsbury suggested that we consider recruiting student volunteers from school clubs such as DECA and Key Club to assist merchants that do not have staff to man their outdoor sales.

Jenna brought up the Downtown Cookie Stroll and the increasing popularity. She suggested possibly moving the date away from the Kris Kringle Market weekend. The Board was open to the change and asked that it come back for consideration at a future meeting.

C. Events for Discussion

Junk in the Trunk/Thursday Night Market Reinvention

Jenna reviewed the past Junk in the Trunk events. She shared that while the attendance was strong, the quality of the merchandise presented was becoming less crafty and more garage sale focused, which wasn't the original intent of the event. Taylor shared that while the vendors at the Thursday Night Market event were high quality, the traffic to the event was not as robust as we had hoped.

They presented a proposal to eliminate these two events in favor of a new event that would be "Maker-focused" and take place on a Saturday in June. The Board discussed possible locations for the reinvented Market concept. The staff was directed to develop a formal plan to present to the PSD Board at a future meeting.

Dancin' in the Street – Inclusion of Alcohol for Sale

Jenna shared that a few of the businesses that took part in the Taste Fest at last year's event, O'Connor's Public House and Rochester Corner Bar, were interested in selling alcohol at this year's event and were interested in the process to make that happen.

Kevin reported that he had done research on what we needed to do as an organization to make this happen, including pulling a Liquor License through our non-profit status. He also indicated that he had spoken with some of the officers working at last year's event and that they would be willing to monitor alcohol on the street.

Kristi shared that she had spoken with Chief Schettenhelm about the idea and that he had indicated that like the Kris Kringle Market, that we would have to provide a fenced in area for alcohol consumption, along with volunteers to monitor the entrance/exit. He did confirm that the easiest way to obtain the license would be for us to apply for it through the non-profit.

The Board discussed the pros and cons of the idea. Patti stated that the restaurants serving alcohol could not donate funds directly back to our organization, but rather would have to pursue a sponsorship option not linked to alcohol sales. The Board directed staff to do further research and bring it to a future meeting.

Snowman Stroll

The Board enthusiastically shared their thoughts on this year's Snowman Stroll event. Many stated that they received great feedback from customers and visitors. Kristi reported that we received a lot of media attention through this event. She also reported that we did have significant amount of vandalism as the event progressed.

The Board discussed continuing this event in 2023. Kristi was directed to research other object options and pricing.

Pancakes and PJs

Kristi reported that the event was successful, with over 125 tickets sold. She shared that more tickets could have been sold if the event took place on a different day than a Tuesday. The Board agreed and suggested picking a Thursday in December this year.

D. Additional Ideas & Discussion

Karen Malsbury suggested that we consider themed-events to bring people downtown, looking to current popular trends for inspiration (i.e. Yellowstone, Pickleball, etc.)

4. Reports

A. PSD Financial Report

The current financial report had not been received from the City.

B. Events & Marketing

Jenna recapped the holiday events and provided an update on the upcoming Fire & Ice Festival. Taylor shared a recap of the Kris Kringle Market, indicating another successful year. Kristi reviewed the Caroling in the City event and the Gift Card Match Program, which sold out in less than an hour.

C. Executive Director Report

Kristi reported that our Main Street Oakland County Evaluation is scheduled for February 2. Details would be shared once we received information from the County.

Kristi shared that the DDA would be having their Goals & Objectives Meeting on Wednesday, January 18. A recap of that meeting would be provided at the February PSD Meeting.
